Check Course Bulletin

Which in-person, online, and/or hybrid classes are being offered this coming term? By consulting the course bulletin, you can plan your schedule around work and family obligations.

Academic Advising

Advising is required for registration. Email advisor@odu.edu to learn who your advisor is. Confirm your appointment, and ask questions about staying on track to graduation.

Registration Portal

Select your classes. Join the waitlist for closed sections you really want just in case they open up after the term starts; often, you can change classes during the add/drop period.
